NEAMATH

WHERE INTEGRITY RESIDES

Creating unsurpassed developments and meaningful neighbourhoods that help people and places thrive is what we, at Neamath, do best and we remain committed to delivering quality - with a difference.

Neamath Realty is a privately owned progressive property development and real estate company. Our expertise covers the full spectrum of development in the residential sectors which not only foster strong communities but also integrate with the surroundings. We believe in the principle of value creation and work in line to devise an ideal pricing model for the product we offer. We adopt a range of traditional and innovative techniques to create high-quality impressive designs and open-plan layouts. From identifying a promising location to the completion of our prestigious homes, every aspect of the design and construction process is carried out with exemplary standards of workmanship to create aesthetic places where people love to live and appreciate both value and quality.

Embrace the greener alternative;
The first solar powered villa project in Palakkad district

NEAMATH PEARL

Pearl is our delightful new development with an idyllic setting in Ottapalam - a place known for its amazing scenic beauty and rich cultural heritage. Pearl is the first project in Palakkad district where the integration of solar energy will serve as a radiance of hope for a greener future for the coming generations. In every villa solar photovoltaic (PV) panels will be strategically positioned on rooftop that will harness sunlight and convert it into electricity to power the home. This beautiful project comprising only 20 premium 3 & 4 BHK Villas planned on 2.1 acres of land is nestled in a beautiful lush green countryside setting. Each villa is equipped with appealing amenities and has been carefully designed using the best materials to create an attractive and welcoming community. With ample of open space combined with standard specifications and within 10-minute drive from all important destinations including famous schools and hospitals - this stunning development offers an attractive prospect for potential homebuyers, growing families and retired couples. So, come and experience the best of both worlds - the benefits of township alongside the relaxed atmosphere of rural beauty at Neamath Pearl.
